

Cynthia Cole Busby

September 11, 1960 - February 7, 2024

Cynthia Cole Busby, 63, a long time resident of Hattiesburg Ms., passed away on February the 7th, 2024 after a short but difficult fight against cancer.

Cynthia, known to many as Cindy, was born to Frank and Evelyn Cole and was the youngest of seven children.

With a Bachelor's degree in Educational Science from University of Southern Ms., and a Master's in Education from William Carrey University, she worked as a teacher for 30 years, primarily with the Perry County School District, before retiring in 2023.

Cindy, was a committed daughter, faithful sister, loving wife, amazing Mother to Kevin, and Shannon Hartfield, caring grandmother to Ethan Hartfield, and Darcey Ann Danner.

Predeceased in death by her Parents, Frank Cole, and Evelyn Newcomer Cole, Brother: Steve E Cole, Sister: Carol C Draughn.

Survived by Husband: James Busby, Children: Kevin, and Shannon Hartfield, Stepdaughter: Leslie Blue, Grandchildren: Ethan Hartfield, and Darcey Ann Danner, Siblings: Cathy Warren, Frank Cole, Claudia Cole, and John Cole.

Cindy's life will be celebrated in a private family service per her request. The family ask that you remember and honor her by donating to the American Cancer Society to help eliminate this disease that took her from us far too soon.

Cynthia had a personality and spirit almost too big to be contained in one individual or in one lifetime. She was a faithful friend, a source of strength, and truth for the people around her. Her passion, wisdom, and love live on in the lives of her family, and friends and are as unforgettable as she was.