Deborah "Debbie" Easley Knight

June 20, 1953 – June 1, 2023

Deborah "Debbie" Easley Knight, age 69, of Lumberton, Mississippi, passed away on Thursday, June 1, 2023, after a brief illness.

Debbie was born in West Helena, Arkansas, and later moved to Lumberton, where she spent most of her life. She was a majorette in the Lumberton High School Marching Band, and attended Pearl River Community College where she worked toward an associate degree. For many years she served as a medical assistant for Lumberton Citizens Hospital and for the Lumberton Family Clinic. She also, in later years, worked as an assistant schoolteacher for the Lumberton Consolidated School District.

She was a member of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. She enjoyed vacationing in the Great Smokey Mountains and spending time with family. Debbie was a dedicated daughter, mother, grandmother, and friend, who always put the needs of others before herself.

Debbie is preceded in death by her father, Ronald Earl "Papa Pug" Easley; her brother, Carey Ronald; and sister, Celeste Josephine Easley. She is survived by her mother, Patricia "Pat" Easley Boutwell ("Nana"); brother, Brian Earl Easley and his wife, Lasha (nee McCartle); sister, Rhonda Breland Cox and husband Roy; son, Jeremy Mancel Kirkland, his wife Elizabeth, and their two children, Jeremy Aiden, and Delaney Elizabeth; and daughter Misty Leigh Ladner (nee Anderson), her husband, Luke, and their three children, Baleigh Alexandra, Gracie Leigh, and Jonathan Cole; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Visitation for family will be held at 9 am at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Lumberton on Saturday, June 3, 2023, with visitation for the public following at 10 am, and services at 11. The family would like to suggest, in lieu of flowers, a donation to the American Cancer Society, or to Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church in Lumberton.
