

Debra Sue Badeaux

May 8, 1956 - July 10, 2024

Debra Sue (Parsley) Badeaux, 68, of Hattiesburg, MS passed on from this world on Wednesday, July 10th when her ongoing battle with cancer finally ceased. She passed in her home with family to comfort her as she wanted. Debbie was born in Houston, TX on May 8th 1956 to Martha and Robert Parsley (both deceased), the third of 5 children. Raised in the wilds of Dallas, TX, she took off for saner pastures at 17. After a very brief stint in the military, she became a military wife to her former husband (Charles Badeaux, 68) for 22 years. During that time, she birthed and raised two children, daughters Charlene (Charley) Badeaux, 48 and Jeannetae (Jeanne) Badeaux, 42. She became a draftsman, working with multiple architectural firms. She packed up and unpacked too many houses to count, so she and her girls could see as much of the world as we could manage, living in multiple states in the US and visiting quite a few more. She lived in Europe for a few years, experiencing everything within reach while she was there. In her later years, she settled down to a quiet life of precious moments with her daughters and grandsons, Ethan A. Gilbert, 23 and Tristan M. Dumas, 19 in South Mississippi. Debbie was my mother. She loved her children, her grandchildren, and her dogs, possibly in that order. She enjoyed the outdoors and nature, campfires and hotdogs cooked over an open flame, loud rock music and long walks. She enjoyed jump scares and watching horror movies with her youngest grandson. She was opinionated, moody, and often times a pain in the ass. She was our mother... our Grandmother... and she was greatly loved. She will be even more greatly missed.

Services are undetermined at this time.
