Debra Kay Pace “Debbie” age 62 (1961-2024), was a creative, determined, nurturing, mother, wife, nana, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend who always put the needs of others before her own. She was born the first of five children in Jacksonville Florida to her parents Mike and Kathy Williams.

Debbie was the oldest of her three sisters and one brother. Her sisters were not only sisters they were her best friends and she always doted on her baby brother. Debbie met and married Mike Pace of Hattiesburg Mississippi and together they celebrated 37 happy years of marriage. As well as becoming encouraging and involved parents to their son Austin Pace and daughter Shelby Pace. Debbie was always devoted to her family and becoming a Nana to her amazing grandson Aiden Pace was one of the greatest joys of her life. She was always so hard working and such a creative person; Debbie had the ability to make any space beautiful. She was a very gifted cook and always enjoyed a nice cup of coffee. Debbie was an avid lover of all kinds of music, sports, and traveling. Debbie could soak up the sun at the beach, was ready for any trip to New Orleans and loved sightseeing in the Mountains. “ You were always so beautiful, so bright. To say I looked up to you was an understatement. It never mattered how bad the news was, how little someone gave you. You could turn it into more and make it great. There aren't words to describe how much we will miss you. You were so fabulous! I'm so proud you were ours!! Can't wait to be with you all again.
