In Loving Memory of Jack John Lewis Delle Jr. [1]^[1] [SEP]

April 29, 1957 – July 30, 2025

Jack John Lewis Delle Jr., age 68, passed away peacefully on July 30, 2025. Born on April 29, 1957 in Vero Beach, Florida.

Jack was a true traveler at heart, but made his home in Kiln, Mississippi where he spent the majority of his life. Jack was a man who found peace in the outdoors. Whether hunting in the woods or casting a line into the water, he was happiest surrounded by nature. His quiet strength, love for adventure, and deep appreciation for the simple things in life were just a few of the qualities that made him so loved by those who knew him. Jack considered his occupation “dry wall master of the universe” and enjoyed it thoroughly.

He is survived by his mother Eileen Mae Kapp Delle, Stanley Delle, Jeffery Delle and his wife Laura, and Michael Delle, many nieces and nephews, daughter Brandy Ladner and her husband Brent, his son Jack “JJ” Delle and JJ’s fiancé Nikki, and his two cherished granddaughters, Jaiden and Jordan, who brought him endless pride and joy.

He is preceded in death by a nephew Jason Delle, his father Jack John Lewis Delle SR, and two cousins who were loved like brothers.

Jack's presence, wisdom, and stories will be deeply missed, but his spirit lives on in the hearts of his family and friends who loved him. He would want to tell everyone to not cry over his passing, but to be tough like buffalo.

There will be no memorial services, but the family will take him back to Florida to spread his ashes.
