“ There are no words to describe how amazing mom was. She was truly the best mom a girl could ask for. She was more than just my mom, she was my best friend. She was always there for me and would always fight for me and when I had kids she fought just as hard if not harder for them. Her love for all of us was so strong and so pure it will forever have a lasting impact on our lives. I will always carry that love in my heart. I can't wait for the day I finally get to see her again. I love you so much always and forever momma
