Mike was born in Metairie, LA on April 1, 1955, to Lorene Simmons. He moved to Purvis, MS at a young age where he attended school and resided for the remainder of his life. He worked in construction from an early age and eventually learned to build homes with his hands and from his heart. He married Sarah Cooper and on November 19, 1979, and March 1, 1981, respectively, he welcomed his two beautiful daughters into the world, Jennifer and Misty, who were the most important part of his life.

Mike was a devoted father and as selfless as they come. He gave everything he had to those he cared about, and anyone who was in need. He had the biggest heart and was not afraid to show this amazing and rare feature from such a rugged man. There is nothing he wouldn't do for those he loved. He enjoyed spending time with his family and drinking coffee with his best friend Cecil Walley, who also preceded him in death. He will be deeply missed by his friends, family, and all who knew him.
