

Robyn Nannette Jackson

June 21, 1960 - March 15, 2021

Robyn Nannette Jackson, 60, died Monday March 15, 2021 at her home in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. She was born June 21, 1960 in Gulfport, Mississippi. She was a graduate from Gulfport High School, and the University of Southern Mississippi with a bachelor's in Journalism.

Robyn was a Featured Editor for the Hattiesburg American for over 25 years, and then for the Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal. She was loved and respected as a true friend, co-worker, mentor, reporter, interviewer, editor, and much more, to so many.

She was an author of several novels, including one she had just completed before her death, but had not published yet; she also self-published "LaKota Moon", a novel about Native Americans.

Robyn was preceded in death by her parents, George Edwin Jackson; Elizabeth N. Anderson, Jackson, Sockwell; paternal grandparents, Audrey and Bruce Jackson, Sr., and maternal grandparents, George Harmon, and Mildred Hudson Anderson.

She is survived by sisters, Pamela K. Snyder (Martinsburg, WV), and Stacey Jackson Gable (Trion, GA); paternal aunts & uncles, Joyce Jackson, Evers (Mulberry, FL), George and Elaine Jackson, Purvis (Gulfport, MS), Mildred and Bruce Jackson, Jr. (Gulfport, MS), Barbara and Emmett (Pete) Jackson (McHenry, MS), Brenda and James (Willie) Jackson (Gulfport, MS); and maternal uncle, George Hudson Anderson (Birmingham, AL).

Robyn was funny, kind, honest, trustworthy, and such an awesome inspiration to us all. She will be greatly missed, and in our hearts and minds for a long time.

Memorial donations may be made to the "GoFundMe" account@ <https://www.gofundme.com/to-help-with-funeral-expenses-for-robyn-jackson> to honor Robyn's funeral, and outstanding financial obligations. Memorial service arrangements will be announced at a later date.
