He is deeply loved and will be missed by his wife, Tina Boquet, whom he proudly protected for 29 years; his two sons, Joshua Smith (Alyson) of Poplarville and Travis Boquet Jr. of Lumberton; his mother, Mrs. Judy Boquet; his father, Mr. Alvin Boquet Sr.; his brothers, Alvin Boquet Jr. of Lumberton, Adam Boquet (Missy) of Lumberton, and Tyrone Boquet (Gina) of Lumberton; his sisters, Tammy Merritt of Lumberton and Louise Boquet of Lumberton; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews, and his beloved dog Gypsy.

There are no words that can truly capture who Travis Boquet was or the impact he had on the lives of those fortunate enough to know him. He will be remembered as a gentle giant, a proud husband, and a devoted father to his sons. His son, TJ, wanted it noted that; He was the best Dad that anyone could ever have.”

Travis was a man of few words, yet his presence was strong, steady, and deeply felt. A faithful Christian, he was a member of Hickory Grove Baptist Church in Lumberton. He was truly a man among men. Beyond his work, Travis had a passion for cooking, with crawfish being his specialty. He also loved animals, racing, and trucks. Always approaching life with the same energy, dedication, and heart that touched everyone around him.

“ Whenever I saw Travis he was very kind. He was a big man who loved his family and his sweet wife Tina. His family really loved him and his kids respected and wanted to spend every moment they could with him. Travis was a great father and partner to his wife. Travis left his family early for sure but he resides with our Lord Jesus and sits and talks with Him daily.
